About TRAVEL INDUSTRY

The travel industry is a vast and dynamic sector with significant economic impact globally. In 2023, the global travel and tourism industry was valued at approximately $9.2 trillion, according to various industry reports. This figure encompasses direct contributions from travel, tourism, and related services to the global economy. The industry contributed about 10% to global GDP in 2023. This includes direct contributions. The travel and tourism sector is a major employer, with over 330 million jobs worldwide in 2023, accounting for around 10% of global employment. The global travel and tourism industry is expected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of around 5% from 2024 to 2030, reaching an estimated market value of $12 trillion by 2030. Growth in emerging markets, particularly in Asia and Africa, is anticipated to drive significant increases in global travel demand.
